Macros can help you save enormous amounts of time, but they are uncharted territory for many Excel users. Learn how to create your own simple macros to automate repetitive tasks in Excel 2016, in this course with Excel expert Dennis Taylor.

Do While and Do Until statements to repeat actions

To run a macro from an object or picture, right-click either one and select Assign Macro. This activates the Assign Macro dialog box; from here select the macro to be associated with the object or picture and click OK. If you later need to assign a different macro to the object or picture, right-click it and select Assign Macro.
